Using eID for Sheep Management & Breeding

Making technology work for you. Yard to office approach delivered by industry specialists.

This is a vital workshop for sheep producers interested in electronic identification (eID).

Sheep production systems based on measurement, management and marketing of animals according to individual or group merit will increase productivity, wellbeing and returns.

Course content

- Review the use of eID tags
- Development of an eID plan for your enterprise
- Understand the challenges associated with eID and the solutions
- Increase understanding of data capture
- Manipulate and interpret data
- Define management strategies to effectively use information

This course is a great opportunity to gain practical skills through interaction with industry experts. This knowledge is immediately applicable and a will generate long term benefits for your business.

Duration: 2 x 6 hours sessions

Location: We will bring the course to your area, so you don't need to travel

Cost: $120 per business - multiple family members or business partners can attend.

For inquiries and information please contact: